INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Owners of:
The Peaks at Eagle Ridge Condominium Corporation No. 072 8880

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the The Peaks at Eagle Ridge Condominium Corporation No. 072 8880, which comprise the statement of financial position as at September 30, 2011, and the statements of operations and changes in fund balances for the operating fund and capital replacement reserve fund, and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles for non-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risks assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the corporation as at September 30, 2011, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles for not-for-profit organizations.

Other Matter

In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the physical infrastructure of the condominium is not recorded as an asset in these financial statements. However, we recommend that the reader make a comparison of the the financial investments reported in the reserve fund with the expected future maintenance costs detailed in the reserve fund study. We also recommend that the reader consider management's reserve fund plan: the plan of the corporation to fund any required capital expenditures. The reserve fund study and reserve fund plan are required for all condominium corporations within two years of their registration, and are revised every five years thereafter.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

SEPTEMBER 30, 2011

1 Purpose and Income Tax Status

The Peaks at Eagle Ridge Condominium Corporation No. 072 8880 (the corporation) is a condominium corporation registered under the Condominium Property Act of Alberta. Its function is to regulate the use of the property and to provide repairs, maintenance and other services to the common areas of the condominium project, located in Fort McMurray, Alberta.

The corporation is a non-profit corporation under the Income Tax Act, and is therefore exempt from income taxes.

2 Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Fund Accounting

The corporation follows the restricted fund method of accounting for contributions.

The Operating Fund accounts for the corporation's operating and administrative activities.

The Capital Replacement Reserve Fund reports the amounts that are set aside and used for future costs of major repairs and replacements. The Condominium Property Act of Alberta restricts the ending balance of the reserve fund to use on major capital repairs and replacements. Receivables of the fund may not be considered in the determination of "funds held," for purposes of the Act.

(b) Revenue Recognition

Condominium fee assessments related to general operations are recognized as revenue of the operating fund as billed to the owners by the corporation. Billings for the condominium fees consist of estimates of monthly charges based on approved budgets. All expenses are recognized as incurred.

Condominium fees related to the Capital Replacement Reserve Fund are recognized as revenue of the reserve fund.

Investment income is recognized as revenue of the Capital Replacement Reserve Fund.

(c) Contributed Services

Volunteer services contributed on behalf of the corporation are not recognized in these financial statements due to the difficulty in determining their fair value.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

SEPTEMBER 30, 2011

(d) Capital Assets

Condominium units and real property directly associated with those units are not considered to be capital assets of the corporation.

Assets purchased by the corporation are expensed when purchased. During the year, asset purchases in the amount of $115,585 were expensed.

(e) Financial Instruments

The corporation's financial instruments consist of cash investment certificates, condominium fees receivable and accounts payable. It is management's opinion that the corporation is not exposed to significant interest or credit risks arising from these financial instruments. The fair value of these financial instruments approximate their carrying values.

3 Comparative Figures

Certain comparative figures have been reclassified to conform to the current year's presentation.

4 Approval of Financial Statements

These financial statements have been approved by the Board of Directors.
